Success Story: Scholar To Graduate With Engineering Degree
Kely Steed Amegbor, a Monsignor William J. Linder Scholar, is heading towards a bright future. A strong math student since high school, Amegbor is majoring in mechanical engineering at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken. He will be graduating in Spring 2017, completing a five-year program that included several internships related to his major.

Amegbor attended St. Benedict’s Prep School in Newark with the help of the Monsignor William J. Linder Scholarship. He believes his rigorous high school experience prepared him for college and expressed appreciation for the scholarship.

“Without the scholarship, I wouldn’t be going to Stevens now. That’s the foundation of my education which enabled me to attend St. Benedict’s,” Amegbor said.

Real Estate Development

The NCC Department of Real Estate Development is driven by a desire to improve quality of life by creating affordable housing that rebuilds communities and recreates stable neighborhoods. The department enhances neighborhoods by emphasizing a holistic approach to development that never loses focus of a community’s needs or vision.

The Department of Real Estate Development has been active from the beginning of NCC and has a staff well-versed in the development process, including both the financing and construction of facilities that create strength for communities.

Many energy-saving measures are being instituted at New Community’s residential properties. The improvements include the installation of high efficiency boilers, hot water heaters, boiler controls, ventilation systems, variable speed pumps, insulation and weather stripping. These improvements will save thousands, lower our carbon footprint and ensure residents comfort for years to come. Funding is provided by federal, state and PSE&G grants and loans.

FSB New Start Program

973-286-2825

Newark New Start is a boarder baby prevention program that provides assistance to at-risk mothers and babies in need, with the hopes of eliminating the number of infants who are left in hospital pediatric wards by mothers who are unwilling or unable to care for their children.

- Assistance with securing infant supplies
- Referrals for substance abuse treatment
- Parenting Classes and Workshops
- Life Skills Training
- Assistance with Pediatric Care
- Assistance in applying for Temporary Assistance to Needy Families, WIC and other Social Services
- Referrals to health care providers
Supportive Assistance to Individuals and Families (SAIF) was developed to create a safety net for those families and individuals who exhausted their five-year time limit on welfare and do not meet the criteria for an exemption to the time limit. The SAIF program couples intensive case management with a continuation of the service package available to WorkFirst NJ recipients. This means that if the client continues to work or participate in a work activity, he or she may receive up to 24 months of cash benefits, plus services such as child care and transportation. If needed, other services such as mental health and substance abuse treatment may also be available. A case manager will keep in close contact with the client — through phone calls, visits to the office and even visits to the client’s worksite or home — to ensure that progress continues.
The Health and Social Services Department interacts closely with NCC’s family and senior housing units. In all NCC senior housing facilities, there is a social services office staffed by a care coordinator. Health clinics staffed by a physician and nurse are located on-site in several of the Newark senior buildings, as well as the one in Orange. A registered nurse oversees the department, serving as director. Services include:

Emergency Food Pantry – New Community operates an emergency food pantry starting the 16th of every month to aid individuals and families who are in need of food supplies. In addition to canned goods, the pantry also provides items such as rice, cereal and even frozen, whole chickens. Just a basic ID is required and for those with children, the birth certificates of each child.

Referrals for Basic Needs — Residents receive referrals to acquire necessities such as food, clothing, shelter and health care within the NCC network or other locations.

Transportation — Social Services provides transportation for seniors and families living in NCC residences. The residents are taken on trips to restaurants, museums, shopping centers, and special events.

Holiday Needs — Social Services collects toys, helps supply holiday meals and provides Christmas gifts to NCC families in need.

Residential Social Services — The Social Services Department assigns care coordinators to all NCC housing developments. NCC’s care coordinators work closely with families and children to foster a pleasant living environment.

Workshops — Residents participate in educational workshops on topics that are important to them, such as fall prevention, proper nutrition and more.
